There’s a reason Pasadena was the original resort town: Idyllic weather. Mountain views. Neighborhood charm in a convenient location.

Today, the city has infused that paradisal allure with metropolitan energy and sophistication, redefining what a getaway can be.

Just ten miles from downtown Los Angeles, Pasadena provides the rare opportunity to host personalized meetings with all the benefits of a big city. You’ll find easy access to LA airports, plenty of hotel space and a vibrant cultural scene that welcomes any taste.

So, plan your next meeting where innovation meets inspiration: Pasadena.

WHY PASADENA?
CENTER OF INNOVATION.
CITY OF INSPIRATION.
SOCAL'S CULTURAL OASIS
Southern California's cultural pulse comes to life in Pasadena. Culturally rich and artfully layered, Pasadena's cachet rivals the likes of New York City and San Francisco. There's a masterpiece around every corner – storied architecture, landmark museums, rare books, lush gardens, top-notch theaters and galleries.

A HOTBED OF INNOVATION
Pasadena makes a cool base camp of inspiration. From Hubble to Hawkings, some of the world's greatest minds have lived and worked in Pasadena. Home to Caltech, JPL and the ArtCenter College of Design, Pasadena institutions boast worldwide recognition for their contributions to science, technology and creativity.

RIGHT IN LA'S BACKYARD
An easy ten-mile drive or lightrail ride from downtown Los Angeles, few locations are more convenient. Pasadena offers an expansive selection of hotels in a walkable neighborhood. You'll find more restaurants per capita than New York City and more than 200 retailers in Old Pasadena alone. Everything you need is here.

AN EXPANSIVE CONVENTION CENTER
At a grand total of 130,000 square feet, the Pasadena Convention Center makes the ideal main stage for your event. The LEED Gold certified center offers 97,000 square feet of exhibit space, 29 meeting rooms and a sparkling 25,000-square-foot Grand Ballroom.

VENUES TO REMEMBER
Whether you're hosting an intimate dinner or entertaining thousands, Pasadena's iconic sites can enhance your meeting with dazzling aplomb. Make a venue of the legendary Rose Bowl Stadium, the tranquil USC Pacific Asia Museum or Caltech's stately Athenaeum.

PASADENA MEETING PLANNER

PASADENA CONVENTION CENTER

Just ten miles from downtown Los Angeles, the Pasadena Convention Center offers easy access to all Southern California airports and to 2,500 local hotel rooms—1,200 within walking distance. Steps away from local shopping, theaters, golf, museums and gardens paired with flexible packages and offerings allow Pasadena Convention Center to be one of the most sought after meeting locations on the West Coast.

The Pasadena Convention Center received LEED® Gold Certification, making it one of the greenest convention centers in North America.

THE PASADENA CONVENTION CENTER IS PROUD TO OFFER EXCLUSIVE ON-SITE SERVICES

Rigging—PSAV provides production riggers who are experienced with the Convention Center’s permanent rigging system.

Internet—PSAV delivers customized high quality services to meet your internet/WiFi needs.

Food & Beverage—Centerplate provides innovative cuisine and stellar service.

Electrical—Eden offers electrical services to meet your utility needs.
MEETING every EXPECTATION

Estimates reflect the maximum capacity with a lectern in each room. Additional equipment, such as head tables, staging, audiovisual equipment and dance floor, will reduce capacity.

How will your next meeting inspire?

UNIQUE OFFSITE VENUES

Infuse your next meeting with the history and charm that sets Pasadena apart. Whether you’re hosting an intimate dinner or entertaining thousands, Pasadena offers an array of stunning locales for private events. Pasadena’s iconic venues are one-of-kind from the outdoor courtyards surrounding the architecturally stunning Pasadena City Hall to the legendary Rose Bowl Stadium; or, the historic Castle Green to Albert Einstein’s inspired Athenaeum at Caltech.
CHARMING NEIGHBORHOODS

Only a short stroll from the Convention Center are three infinitely inviting districts that blend the past, present and future: Old Pasadena, Playhouse District and South Lake Avenue. Located within Pasadena’s 1.5-mile downtown core, these legendary areas are alive with cobblestone courtyards, sidewalk bistros, nightlife, shopping, and entertainment.

Old Pasadena

TEL 626-356-9725
WEB oldpasadena.org

Our city’s original commercial hub in the 19th century, Old Pasadena today is a hip urban center with popular restaurants, unique boutiques, exclusive retailers and exciting nightlife, all housed in buildings representing the Victorian, Mission Revival and Art Deco eras. The 22-block area is listed on the National Register of Historic Places, encompass two city parks, a revered performance band shell and the Moorish-influenced Castle Green — one of Pasadena’s first grand hotels, built in 1898.

THREE DYNAMIC DISTRICTS

Playhouse District

TEL 626-744-0340
WEB playhousedistrict.org

Looking for an eclectic mix of antique sellers, museums, bookstores, restaurants and one-of-a-kind shops, all enhanced with 1920’s architecture and timeless culture? The Playhouse District is your place. The district is anchored by the Pasadena Playhouse—also California’s Official State Theater—home to a variety of theatrical productions since 1917. Want to find classic vinyl along with today’s chart-topping hits? Check out Canterbury Records. Witness creatively daring presentations of drama and music at the intimate Boston Court Performance Arts Center, known for its impassioned nurturing of new talent.

South Lake Avenue

TEL 626-792-1259
WEB southlakeavenue.org

A European-style, romantically tree-lined avenue, the South Lake District is flanked by popular Pasadena institutions like Smitty’s Grill and Pie ‘n Burger, as well as brand-name stores and restaurants. Macy’s is the cornerstone housed in a sleek, modern icon, circa 1947, lovingly designed by renowned architect Welton Becket. The 10-block area winds its way between California and Colorado Boulevards, and into your heart forever.

PASADENA PLUS

The Rose Bowl Game®. The Rose Parade®. The Little Old Lady From Pasadena. Although all go back quite a ways, the median age of today’s residents is just 37 years young.

WEB oldpasadena.org

Our city’s original commercial hub in the 19th century, Old Pasadena today is a hip urban center with popular restaurants, unique boutiques, exclusive retailers and exciting nightlife, all housed in buildings representing the Victorian, Mission Revival and Art Deco eras. The 22-block area is listed on the National Register of Historic Places, encompass two city parks, a revered performance band shell and the Moorish-influenced Castle Green — one of Pasadena’s first grand hotels, built in 1898.

Playhouse District
TEL 626-744-0340
WEB playhousedistrict.org

Looking for an eclectic mix of antique sellers, museums, bookstores, restaurants and one-of-a-kind shops, all enhanced with 1920’s architecture and timeless culture? The Playhouse District is your place. The district is anchored by the Pasadena Playhouse—also California’s Official State Theater —home to a variety of theatrical productions since 1917. Want to find classic vinyl along with today’s chart-topping hits? Check out Canterbury Records. Witness creatively daring presentations of drama and music at the intimate Boston Court Performance Arts Center, known for its impassioned nurturing of new talent.

South Lake Avenue
TEL 626-792-1259
WEB southlakeavenue.org

A European-style, romantically tree-lined avenue, the South Lake District is flanked by popular Pasadena institutions like Smitty’s Grill and Pie ’n Burger, as well as brand-name stores and restaurants. Macy’s is the cornerstone housed in a sleek, modern icon, circa 1947, lovingly designed by renowned architect Welton Becket. The 10-block area winds its way between California and Colorado Boulevards, and into your heart forever.

PASADENA PLUS

The Rose Bowl Game®. The Rose Parade®. The Little Old Lady From Pasadena. Although all go back quite a ways, the median age of today’s residents is just 37 years young.
INCOMPARABLE CUISINE

Waves of pioneering chefs in search of the next culinary hot spot have set up shop in Pasadena, raising the city’s epicurean offerings to the top of the restaurant ranks. With 500 eateries, Pasadena boasts more restaurants per capita than New York City. No wonder it’s become the new foodie frontier for the hip, savvy and hungry.

The charm of the city’s walkable neighborhoods showcases some of the most sought-out locales for emerging and established chefs. Many eateries offer alfresco dining—or even romantic rooftop retreats—where diners can savor the temperate Southern California climate alongside some of the region’s most tantalizing cuisine.

With a new following comes a new attitude towards artisanal eats and pours housed in intimate digs where conversation comes easy. Whether you’re in search of craft cocktails or pub crawls, petite plates or full-on food tours, French bistros or Italian trattorias, Pasadena is a mecca for the brightest minds in the culinary and mixology arts, ready to rival the world’s big cities with a new level of creative energy. It’s the hottest locale for adventurous diners in search of an inclusive experience that’s under the radar.
